

Chapter 21
A TURBULENT
DECADE*Daily Quiz
Section I

MULTIPLE CHOICE (10 points each) For each of the following, write the letter of the best choice in the space provided.

- _____ 1. Who helped turn public opinion against organized labor by attributing the Seattle strike to the Bolsheviks?
- Attorney General A. Mitchell Palmer
 - Mayor Ole Hanson
 - Governor Calvin Coolidge
 - Commissioner Edwin Curtis
- _____ 2. Postwar America's hostility toward foreigners and radicals was illustrated by the
- Sacco and Vanzetti case.
 - rise of the Communist party.
 - outlawing of the Socialist party.
 - formation of the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom.
- _____ 3. During the Boston police strike, Governor Coolidge demonstrated support for the commissioner by
- forbidding police to arrest looters.
 - outlawing police unionization.
 - ordering police to strike.
 - proclaiming that no one has the right to strike against public safety.
- _____ 4. The postwar U.S. economy experienced all of the following EXCEPT
- a deep but short-lived recession.
 - a rise in the cost of living.
 - a growth in agricultural sales.
 - an increase in unemployment.
- _____ 5. The Palmer raids were attacks on
- U.S. government officials.
 - industrial replacement workers.
 - suspected political radicals.
 - U.S. corporate monopolies.
- _____ 6. American workers reacted to the difficult economic times of 1919 by
- agreeing not to strike.
 - organizing public opinion against businessmen.
 - unsuccessfully striking for higher wages and improved working conditions.
 - blaming unions for their problems.
- _____ 7. As a result of her radical opinions, Emma Goldman was
- deported to Russia.
 - confined to an American prison.
 - executed for treason.
 - forced to work in a factory.
- _____ 8. One of the causes of the 1920–1921 recession was
- the renewal of war contracts.
 - a rise in farm prices.
 - postwar demobilization.
 - declining European farm production.
- _____ 9. During the period known as the Red Scare, many people feared
- a Communist revolution.
 - anti-Socialists.
 - wealthy factory owners.
 - that European immigration would end.
- _____ 10. Steel companies reacted to the 1919 steel strike by
- trying to divide strikers along ethnic lines.
 - bringing in replacement workers.
 - hiring thugs to attack strikers.
 - engaging in all of the above tactics.