

Chapter 21
A TURBULENT DECADE

Daily Quiz
Section 2

FILL IN THE BLANK (10 points each) For each of the following, write the answer from the list below that best completes the sentence. Some answers will not be used.

- | | | |
|------------------|----------------------|-----------------------------|
| Calvin Coolidge | Teapot Dome scandal | Alfred E. Smith |
| Albert Fall | Warren G. Harding | Equal Rights Amendment |
| American Plan | Harry Daugherty | Forbes scandal |
| mergers | Eighteenth Amendment | Fordney-McCumber Tariff Act |
| Andrew W. Mellon | labor unions | Charles Dawes |

1. Taking a tight-fisted approach to government spending, President _____ vetoed bills designed to help veterans and farmers.
2. During the 1920s probusiness Republicans encouraged companies to consolidate, or develop _____.
3. Because it would invalidate laws giving special protection to women, the _____ divided women's groups.
4. In the 1928 presidential election, Herbert Hoover won easily over Roman Catholic _____, a moderate progressive with ties to Tammany Hall.
5. Business leaders supported a policy known as the _____, which encouraged the use of open shops, or nonunion factories.
6. The Harding administration was besieged by scandal, including the _____, which involved bribes taken for leasing government oil reserves.
7. In an effort to improve the economy, Harding's secretary of the treasury, _____, persuaded Congress to cut taxes levied on the wealthy.
8. Eager for a return to normalcy after the war, Americans' elected _____ to the presidency in 1920.
9. Congress passed the _____ of 1922 in an unsuccessful attempt to boost farm prices.
10. The first cabinet member to be imprisoned for crimes committed while in office was Secretary of the Interior _____.