

Chapter 25
BETWEEN THE WARS

Daily Quiz
Section I

FILL IN THE BLANK (10 points each) For each of the following, write the answer from the list below that best completes the sentence. Some answers will not be used.

- | | | |
|--------------------|----------------------|---------------------|
| isolationism | creditor nation | reparations |
| Kato Tomosaburo | World Court | moratorium |
| unilateralism | Charles Evans Hughes | Nine Power |
| Four Power | disarmament | Kellogg-Briand Pact |
| Emily Greene Balch | communism | debtor nation |

1. The United States wanted to limit an international weapons buildup by negotiating _____.
2. U.S. isolationists supported _____, or independent action in foreign affairs.
3. In the _____ Treaty the United States, Japan, Great Britain, and France agreed to honor each other's Pacific territories.
4. The United States became a _____ in 1914, since Great Britain and France had borrowed money to finance the war.
5. In 1931 President Hoover declared a _____, or halt, on war debt payments.
6. The _____ Treaty ensured China's territorial integrity and promised to maintain the Open Door policy.
7. American foreign policy after World War I can best be described as partial _____, or withdrawal from foreign affairs.
8. Secretary of State _____ proposed that the major powers scrap 78 large warships, a plan later known as the Five Power Agreement.
9. The _____ stated that nations could only declare war in self-defense.
10. After World War I, three U.S. presidents proposed that the United States join the _____, dedicated to solving international disputes.